

CHAMPIONS ARE BUILT ONE ROUND AT A TIME

Olympic Taekwondo stories for Prime students

A short reading guide to repeat champions, medal history, and practice goals.

Two athletes. Two Olympic titles each.

World Taekwondo records show these athletes won gold in the same Olympic weight category at both Tokyo 2020 and Paris 2024. Their results give students a real example of progress over more than one Games.

THAILAND | WOMEN -49 KG

Panipak Wongpattanakit

Olympic record: Gold at Tokyo 2020 and Paris 2024, in Women -49 kg.

Student takeaway: Choose one technique to improve each week. Ask your coach for feedback, then practise it with focus.

Open official World Taekwondo record

UZBEKISTAN | MEN -68 KG

Ulugbek Rashitov

Olympic record: Gold at Tokyo 2020 and Paris 2024, in Men -68 kg.

Student takeaway: Build your goal step by step: attend, warm up well, practise safely, and review what you learned after class.

Open official World Taekwondo record

A champion habit for every student

Train with patience. Respect your partner. Listen to your coach. Measure progress against your own last class.

The practice ideas above are for students; they are not quotes from the athletes. Medal details are taken from World Taekwondo event and athlete records.

Olympic Taekwondo gold medalists

A quick look at the eight Olympic weight-category champions. Open World Taekwondo official results to explore medal and match records.

CATEGORY	CHAMPION	COUNTRY
Men -58 kg	Tae-Joon Park	Korea
Men -68 kg	Ulugbek Rashitov	Uzbekistan
Men -80 kg	Firas Katousi	Tunisia
Men +80 kg	Arian Salimi	Iran
Women -49 kg	Panipak Wongpattanakit	Thailand
Women -57 kg	Yu-Jin Kim	Korea
Women -67 kg	Viviana Marton	Hungary
Women +67 kg	Althea Laurin	France

Make it your own goal

Write one skill you want to sharpen, one question for your coach, and one thing you did well this week.

MY SKILL GOAL	A QUESTION FOR MY COACH	ONE WIN THIS WEEK

SOURCES

- World Taekwondo - Tokyo 2020 medalists
- World Taekwondo - Paris 2024 medalists
- World Taekwondo - Panipak Wongpattanakit athlete record
- World Taekwondo - Ulugbek Rashitov athlete record

Prepared for Prime Taekwondo students | Results checked 4 October 2026. Medal records can change as official databases are corrected; follow the linked World Taekwondo pages for the latest record.